PRESS RELEASE

Suspension of In-Person Court Proceedings Extended

For Immediate Release

December 30, 2020

Effective Monday, January 4, 2021, the 67th District Court will remain closed to the public.

All court proceedings will be conducted virtually via Zoom and livestreamed on YouTube.

Based on discussions with the Genesee County Health Department, Chief Judge Christopher Odette determined that these actions are crucial in protecting the employees, the legal community and the public during this pandemic.

Urgent matters may be placed in the drop-box located inside the McCree Building, located at 630 S. Saginaw Street, Flint, Michigan or submitted @ www.67thdc.com.

For further updates or information, please contact the 67th District Court or visit our website @ www.67thdc.com.

Effective through January 31, 2021
